

Minnesota State High School Mathematics League

Code of Conduct and Media Release

As a student participating in the Minnesota State High School Mathematics League, I understand and accept the following responsibilities when participating in all events:

- I will respect the rights of others and will treat others with courtesy.
- I will be fully responsible for my actions and the consequences of those actions.
- I will respect the property of others.
- I will respect and obey the rules of my school, the host site and the laws of my community, state and country.
- I will show respect for and abide by the decisions of the competition officials and host site personnel.

Furthermore, as a student participating in the Minnesota State High School Mathematics League, I understand the importance of honesty and fair play. I accept and agree to the following:

- I will not use any electronic devices in any competition room at League events other than a calculator for approved events and a language translator if my first language is not English. Prohibited electronic devices during the individual and team events include, but are not limited to, telephones, mp3 players, video players, iPods, computers, any WI-FI enabled device, walkie-talkies, personal listening devices, audio recording devices, video recording devices, and cameras of any kind. Any of these devices in my possession will be out of my sight and turned off while in competition rooms.
- I will not share any of the problems, answers or solutions from any of the events with anyone outside of my division until the final results for the meet are posted on the League website.
- I understand that cheating or other dishonest behavior on my part is serious and will result in my disqualification at the current meet. I will also be barred from participation at the next scheduled meet as a further consequence for dishonest behavior. Large scale cheating or other dishonest behavior as a scoring team will result in the disqualification of the entire team at the current meet and the next scheduled meet.

By signing this statement, I acknowledge that I have read and agree to the above responsibilities.
